

Joan Pinos

At the heart of Creative Connexions Ireland in Sitges - multi-instrumentalist JOAN PINOS

Well known to the Sitges community, Joan is immersed in local music life and plays in many folk and jazz bands as well as directing the Jazz Antic Sitges festival. Joan is currently the banjoist of the Apocadixie Cotton Pickers and he also performs concerts with the double bass, tuba or trumpet.

He is an intrinsic part of the musical activity in Sitges and works closely with Caroline and the festival team all year round. Joan will collaborate with many performers and youth groups this October. Also, visit his wonderful music shop in Sitges - Music & Sons, C. de Sant Pau, 20
