Betlem Burcet: Step-Dance

And more dancers to be announced.....

This year will see the liveliest dance show of the 10 years!

Offering a wide variety of dance styles and produced by the performers above this year the festival is offering an afternoon of different dance performances, dance music and dance styles. Combining traditional dance and music with a variety of traditional and contemporary dance moves, this extravaganza will offer the audience an exhilarating and exciting energy-packed stage show.

Following the stage show audiences are invited to sit back and watch an informal presentation of dance or push back your chair and join in the Céilí! From Sardanas to the Siege of Ennis this year's dance event will rock!

The festival will offer a variety of dance workshops for beginners and intermediate dancers in advance of this event.
