

Ciara-Lee Jenkinson

Following a successful competitive career in dancing, including gold medals at Leinster, All-Ireland and World Championships, Ciara-Lee fulfilled her lifetime dream when she joined Riverdance in 2009. She toured worldwide with Riverdance for three years and Rhythm of the Dance for one year. During this time, Ciara-Lee toured America, Canada, Asia, Australia and Europe as part of the main troupe as well as playing both the drums, bodhrán and solo sean-nós (old-style) dancing. Over her career she has also danced and performed on many television shows and for many celebrities and dignitaries in over 40 countries and 5 continents. Ciara-Lee now plays and performs all over Ireland for corporate events, weddings, tourist shows and in various Dublin venues. She provides unique experiences including bodhrán and dance workshops teaching up to 100 people the bodhrán mixed in with some céilí dances. A traditional experience like no other!

