

Miquela Lladó

Miquela Lladó, singer and composer, is one of the most representative voices of traditional and popular music in Mallorca. Singer and founder of the band Música Nostra with whom she has recorded 11 CDs promoting the renewal of roots music over the course of 41 years!

Her work as a singer-songwriter can be heard on the CDs "Com un Ventall" and "Tècnica Mixta" where there are also poems by Catalan poets set to music.

She has worked with Rosa Zaragoza interpreting Jewish, Christian and Muslim songs. With Maria Lafitte, old music songs and many other collaborations such as with The Balearic Islands Symphony Orchestra reciting "Pere i el Llop" and "Guia de l'Orquestra".

She has been awarded with the prizes: Cerverí de Girona for the best lyrics, Jaume II Award from the Council of Mallorca, Ramon Llull Award from the Government of the Balearic Islands, Santa Annetta Award from Titoieta Radio, Enderock's Honour Award for her musical career as well as many other recognitions and awards.