

Follow the Tune

A Multimedia Presentation of the Music of North Roscommon

Film – Photography – Audio – Live Music

Featuring musicians Mossie Martin (fiddle), Bernard Flaherty (flute & whistle),

Donal O' Connor (guitar), dancer Betlem Burcet, and joined by several other well-known traditional performers, this concert takes you on a journey of the music of an area in the West of Ireland, a place with a rich traditional legacy and a distinctive style of playing. Mossie and Bernard, both renowned exponents of this style will take you through the nuances and the stories of these tunes. Against the backdrop of dazzling visual presentations this concert will make you feel you have arrived in the heart of a location in the North- West of the country. Craobh Phairais, travelling to Sitges since 2014, will also perform as part of Follow the Tune.

This is an ongoing project supported by Roscommon Creative Ireland Programme and led by Caroline Wynne, Artscope.
